

Items of a Purely Local Nature

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kane of Chadron spent Friday visiting Alliance friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kenner of Girard spent yesterday visiting Alliance friends and attending the races at the fair grounds.

Miss Gladys Sheridan of Gothenberg, former Alliance school teacher arrived at noon today for a visit of two weeks with old-time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Wetstone and Mrs. George Waldron of Casper, Wyoming are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Merritt in this city.

Mrs. A. Mollring returned Friday night from Scottsbluff, where she had been for several days visiting a sister, who had been quite ill.

A splendid new electric sign was placed across the front of the Thiele drug store this week. It is one of the most attractive in the city.

The stores of Alliance, many of them at least, have been closed during the races. They are opened for business following the completion of the program for the afternoon.

All returned soldiers in uniform and those in civilian dress displaying proper discharge papers will be admitted to the fair grounds free of charge tomorrow, July 4th. The bowery dance will also be free to those in uniform.

Mrs. Hazel Martin, who has been attending school at Omaha is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Pockey this week. She will return to the state metropolis shortly to resume her school work.

Postmaster Dan Brewster of Chadron was over Wednesday and Thursday taking in the races and shaking hands with friends. Mr. Brewster has just moved into the new federal building at that place with the post-office and feels mighty good in the new location.

Col. L. E. Bliss sold a team of draft mares and some farm machinery on the corner of Box Butte avenue and Third street Saturday afternoon. The team brought $235. One of the mares had a small colt by her side.

The J. E. Wilson & Son horse sale held at the stock yards Wednesday and Thursday of last week was well attended and the stock sold well. Good horses sell particularly well just now, while the smaller stuff finds a somewhat poorer market.

Ross Hampson and wife returned Monday from Wray, Colorado, where they had been visiting for several weeks. Ross has about recovered from his injury and his arm is in such condition that he was able to return to his work in the Corner Barber shop.

John King came home from Casper, Wyoming the latter part of the week. Johnny had been pitching ball for the Casper team against some of the other Wyoming town clubs and won every start. He says the people living in that section are base ball crazy and that several of the towns have semi-pro teams.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an open competitive examination to be held in Alliance on August 23 for the purpose of examining applicants for the position of railway mail clerk. The place pays $1,100 per year. Further particulars may be had upon application to F. W. Hicks, local secretary.

Peppose Rowing, former mayor of the city of Alliance, but a frequent years a resident of Omaha is visiting old-time friends this week and attending the races and reunion. Peppose says that those who have suffered the heat of the past few days should spend a few hours in the first city of the state and get a touch of genuine hot weather and sultry atmosphere.

Leo Purdy, one of Uncle Sam's fighting men, returned to his home here Saturday evening after a long service in the army. Leo spent sixteen months overseas with the railroad operating forces and was mighty glad to get home. He received his discharge at Camp Dodge and will soon get back to his before-the-war job with the Burlington lines here.

HOTEL CONANT
OMAHA

250 ROOMS —
250 BATHS
RATES $2.50 — 3 DOWN
50 ROOMS WITH BATH $2.50
100 ROOMS WITH BATH $2.00
100 ROOMS WITH BATH $1.50

Fred Coleman and small son of Broken Bow spent Tuesday in Alliance.

Dr. McKinley of Guernsey, Wyo., passed through Alliance Monday en route to Grant City, Missouri.

G. C. Barker and family are spending several weeks visiting relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Miss Louise and Dorothy Fricke returned Monday from a months visit in Kansas City and Lincoln.

Miss Matilda Frankle has as her house guest Miss Marion Dickenson of Eagle, Colo.

Calvin Remington of Lincoln is spending some time here checking over the books at the Court House.

Mrs. Chapin and children returned Sunday after a months visit in the eastern part of the state.

A band of gypsies, typical of their kind with the exception that they traveled in Fords rather than in the covered wagons invaded the peaceful confines of our city this week.

Michael Nolan who has spent two years in the U. S. Naval service has received his discharge and returned to his home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. VanLandingham left Wednesday for their new home in Omaha. They made the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marquis visited in Alliance the fore part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Marquis are en route to India where they will work as missionaries.

Mrs. I. E. Tash returned home Friday after visiting several weeks with her daughter at Mason City, Iowa, and she also visited her mother at Afton, Iowa.

Miss Ethel Height of York was guest of honor at a Kensington given Thursday evening by Mrs. Harry Sims. The guests were the Misses Florence Campbell, Ethel Height, Janet Grassman, Wilma Mote, Mable Grassman, Glen Mounts and Lois Mote.

The Misses Teresa Morrow, Margaret Harris, Mildred Griggs and Hannah Cotarr entertained at a dancing party at Happy Hollow Monday evening in honor of Miss Mildred and Dorothy Whitehead of Mitchell and Miss Marion Dickenson of Eagle, Colo. About forty couples were present.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woods, 508 Sweetwater avenue on Saturday evening occurred the wedding of Miss Temmy Woods and Mr. Hercul V. Lane, with Dean Dixon of the St. Matthews' church officiating. Miss Woods has for several months been employed in the office of the Thomas-Bald Investment Company and besides being a very charming and popular young lady possess considerable business ability. The lucky man is a boiler maker employed at the Burlington shops in this city and while not so well known here is highly respected by all his acquaintances and fellow workers. His home has been at Cisco, Texas. The happy couple will make their home in this city.

Carl Young and sister, Miss Mabel enjoyed a visit this week from a brother who lives at Hastings. He returned to his home last night accompanied by his brother and sister who will spend a short time with him.

Looking Well Dressed on the Fourth

The necklace of pearls or beads, the dainty lingerie clasps, pretty bar pin or brooch, becoming earrings, handsome slipper buckles, the attractive rings, make the summer costume smarter and more charming, without in the least jacking away from its comfort or coolness.

A man should wear soft cuff links, a gold or silver belt buckle, scarf pin that goes with the summer tie, clip that keep the tie well arranged, and preferably a strap watch.

Whether you plan to spend the day in town or in the country, your jewelry will have much to do with your being well dressed. Thiele's Jewelry has the style, beauty and quality you want, yet is not expensive in price.

- Bead Necklaces, $1.50 to $6.50
- Pearl Necklaces, $2.50 to $50.00
- Brooches, $1 to $50
- Bar Pins, $1 to $50
- Circle Pins, 75c to $5
- Slipper Buckles, $2 to $5
- Cuff Links, 75c to $25
- Scarf Pins, 75c to $25
- Belt Buckles, $1 to $3
- Tie Clasps, 50c to $1.50
- Strap Watches, $10 to $25

Thiele's

Jewelry, Watches, Drugs
Pathe Phonographs
Watch Inspectors for
C. B. & Q.

Back up W. S. S. Campaign.
The Nebraska State Association of Commercial Clubs at their annual convention at Broken Bow, after a short address by Lloyd Mattson, Director of Publicity of the Nebraska War Savings Committee, concerning the War Savings Stamps adopted a resolution, putting the organization on record favoring the Government teaching Thrift in the State and also pledge their hearty support to the movement that its success in Nebraska may be assured.

Presbyterian Church.
Services for Sunday July 6, The Sunday School meets at 10 a. m. A thoroughly graded school—classes for all. Send the boys and girls regularly—Come with them. Morning worship, 11 a. m. We will observe the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. All who own Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are welcomed to the memorial feast which He instituted. "This do in remembrance of me, for as oft as ye eat this bread and drink this cup ye do show the Lord's death till He come." Evening service, 8 p. m. The first of the Union Services will be held at the Baptist Church. Rev. Joseph Dixon will speak. You are cordially welcomed to all these services.
A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

For Sale—About 450 head of stock cattle, including about 100 head yearling and two-year old steers; 100 head of cows and calves, well bred Herfords. Have always run thoroughbred bulls and guarantee this stock to be of good quality. Address Frank O. Reed, Holt, Wyo. 31-41-8091

WANTED—5 bright, capable Ladies to Travel, demonstrate and sell dealers. $25.00 or $50.00 per week. Railroad fare paid. Write at once. GOODRICH DRUG CO., Dept. 786, Omaha, Nebr. 30-41-8086

LEGAL NOTICE.
In the County Court of Box Butte County, Nebraska.
In the Matter of the Estate of Margaret Triplett, deceased.
To All Persons Interested in Said Estate:
Notice is hereby given that at the County Court Room in the City of Alliance, in said County on the day of July, 1919, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., the following matter will be heard and considered: the petition of George D. Darling for the issuance of letters of administration upon the estate of Margaret Triplett, deceased.
Dated this 27th day of June, 1919.
IRA E. TASH,
County Judge
(SEAL)
L. A. BERRY, Atty. 30-31-8081

HARVEST YOUR CROP WITH A KNICKERBOCKER

FARM TRACTOR AND A FORD

Does Everything on the Farm

SPECIAL PRICE

$175.00

OMAHA

IMMEDIATE SHIPMENT WIRE TODAY

O'Brien, Davis, Coad Auto Co.

1814-16-18 Farnam St.

Omaha, Nebraska

Of Course You're Going to the

Firemen's Dance

at the Armory

That's where the crowd's going and where your friends will be found; where an eight piece orchestra furnishes the music and where you will find the best floor for dancing to be found in Box Butte county. The building is so ventilated that you will not become uncomfortably warm and will afford genuine pleasure during the evening.

Thursday and Friday Nights

July 3rd and 4th

Will be big nights for those who attend and there will be good size crowds each night. It's always a pleasure to be with the crowd. Bring your friends; tell your neighbors and come along. The boys will treat you right and see to it that you enjoy your stay with them.

Follow the Crowd to the Armory Dance